

Martini Menu

Have it your way, Standard, Dry or Dirty

Roku 18

Cherry blossoms give a sweet floral aroma combined with green tea & Yuzu's bold citrus notes which give this gin the iconic Japanese flavor.

Applewood 19

This Gin is inspired by the Australian bush land and is jam packed with native botanical's such as wild thyme, pepper berry and wattle seed. Applewoods unique selling point is the addition of Peppermint gum leaf, which makes it taste unlike any other.

Hendricks 18

Very classic Gin on the palate with flavors of angelica, coriander, juniper and orris root. A burst of citrus flavors seals the deal.

Citadelle 24

Herbaceous notes of dried spices, but also coconut shell, tobacco and orange. The first note is silky, abundant, a bit spicy/peppery, with hints of dried tobacco.

Brookies 18

The spirit opens on a captivating combination of Citrus notes, led by Aniseed and Cinnamon Myrtle in harmony with a lively drift of Finger and Blood Limes. It's an incredible ground breaking aromatic exploration."

Tintenbar 19

This small batch Gin packs a punch of juniper, ginger and citrus peels, yet it's incredibly smooth and can be sipped on its own. Perfect in a martini on a balmy subtropical evening, but really anyhoo will do

Ink Gin 18

When the floral-infused Ink Gin is mixed with something of low pH (including gin's best friends; tonic water, lime or lemon), the color changes dramatically from blue to blush pink.
